The main street of Kiev is Khreshchatyk. This place is associated with many significant events in the history of Ukraine. On any day, especially on weekends and holidays, mass festivities and various events take place on Khreshchatyk.

The central square in Kiev is Independence Square (in Ukrainian: Maidan Nezalezhnosti). This main square of Ukraine, popularly called "Maidan" is connected with Khreshchatyk. Near the square, and under it there are three lines of a fairly large shopping center Globus.

City guests can visit the famous shrine of Kiev - Pechersk Lavra. This historical and cultural reserve was founded under Prince Yaroslav the Wise in 1051. In the caves of the Kiev Pechersk Lavra relics of saints are still stored. In the monastery you can drink holy water from underground sources and buy church souvenirs.

Sophia Cathedral is the most important tourist attraction in Kiev. It attracts the attention of especially foreign tourists. Next to this ancient building are great photos. Inside the temple you will see ancient church murals and the legendary mosaic of smalt - Oranta. The aura in the Kiev Hagia Sophia is unique and unforgettable.

Shops and Shopping

Fans of shopping will find a huge number of shops and modern shopping centers in Kiev. Closer to the central part of the city are expensive branded boutiques, but there is no shortage of ordinary inexpensive stores scattered all over Kiev. On Gorky (Antonovich) street is located one of the most beautiful shopping and entertainment centers of the city of Kiev - "Ocean Plaza", which is built in accordance with all European standards. This Shopping Mall is popular with all Kievans, tourists and guests of the capital of Ukraine. Ocean Plaza has a wide range of products and entertainment.

Ukrainian food

Traditional dishes of Ukrainian cuisine are red borsch and various dumplings. Puzata Hata is the best budget restaurant with national Ukrainian cuisine in Kiev. In this network of establishments, you can cheaply eat real Ukrainian borsch with donuts, a Kiev patty and other Ukrainian national food in a traditional interior. This fast food restaurant is also called "Ukrainian McDonalds", only the products used are fresh and natural.

Transport

In Kiev, there are such types of public transport: metro, buses, trams, trolleybuses, minibuses and a city electric train. The fare in the Kiev metro is one of the cheapest in the world and at the moment the cost of a one-time trip is 15 UAH. Taxi prices in Kiev depend on which taxi service you will use. There are Kiev taxi companies with low tariffs, their fleet consists mainly of economy cars. At the same time, many carriers offer business-class cars and various additional services for a fee. Those wishing to rent a car will appreciate the presence in Kiev of branches of international car rental companies.

Currency exchange

Currency exchange is carried out at any bank or at special exchange points (kiosks), which are located in a fairly large amount in the city of Kiev.
